

I do not believe that cable companies or telephone companies should profit from broadband. I believe it should be made available over current power lines. That is a great idea and I hope it passes.